

I would like New Jersey's DO NOT CALL to stay the way it was first made. The telemarketers are relentless in the way they do their job and I resent them invading my privacy at all hours.